EUROPEAN CAPITAL MARKETS CONFERENCE

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 12TH 2017

BALLROOM HOTEL BAYERISCHER HOF

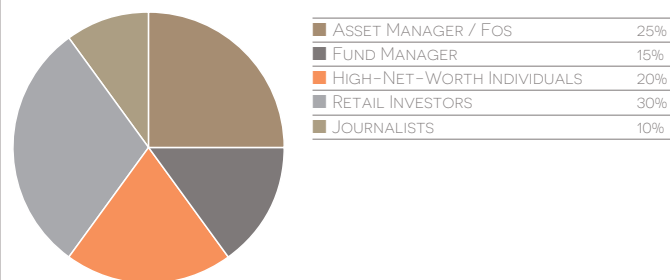

INTRODUCTION

The „European Capital Markets Conference” (formerly Seven Chances Conference) is one of the most traditional bank-independent capital markets conferences in Europe. In the past 16 years, there have been company presentations of almost 200 issuers of all different sizes on 24 conferences. The smallest company has been BGI zu Höne Klussmann Altpeter AG, based in Heidelberg, Germany, that has been presented by its management in 2006 in front of around 160 participants. Galp Energia S.A. – an integrated energy company based in Portugal with a market cap of more than 11 billion Euro – has been the largest corporation so far. It has been presented in front of more than 200 investors in 2012.
